Job Opportunities!

There will soon be a great opportunity available to enter the exciting field of news reporting! The salary is not phenomenal (zero dollars), but it is a wonderful chance to express your artistic and journalistic talents.

After 4 years as chief editor I have placed my home for sale and plan to move to another state some distance away fairly soon. Thus Carolina Heartbeat will need a new chief editor, if the publication is to continue in existence! Depending on how quickly my home sells, I may have time to publish a July issue

I use Microsoft Publisher to lay out this newsletter, but other software could be used. And the newsletter would not have to be as large and fancy, just report any chapter news and coming dance events. I believe Trudy Atkins and Lib Johnson will continue as contributing editors and proof readers.

If you are interested in this fantastic opportunity, please contact me at charleshafer@gmail.com or 336-554-5279. And no oath of office is required of the newsletter editor.

In addition, I will be resigning from the board of directors after 9 years, and the chapter will need an interim treasurer to complete the term than ends December 2017. USA Dance requires the election this autumn for the 2018-2019 board of directors, which will take office January 2018. The new board will decide who will be the treasurer for the next term.

Requirements include being able to write a few checks a month and count the money that is collected, although the bank always recounts it when depositing, and recoding some data in Excel spreadsheets.

If you would like to finish the current treasurer term, please contact me or Carolina Heartland President Terry Whittington at sugeonca@aol.com or 919-883-1487.

May Heartland Report

Those who attended the May 13 Waltz Workshop taught by Adina Harper learned several techniques to improve their dancing, in addition to a couple steps they can add to their repertoire.

The majority of those attending the workshop returned in a few hours for the special Saturday evening dance at the grange, along with several dancers who had not attended the workshop.

They enjoyed the great dance music provided by Terry Whittington and refreshments provided by Marty Bergman and Charlie Hafer. And thanks to Marty and Charlie who set up for the dance and Marty who hosted the dance and provided decorations.

Our June monthly dance will be on Sunday, June 11, starting with a romantic rumba lesson taught by Tim Saunders at 2:30 pm.

Treasury Balance for May 31: $3327.81
